New Harbor Osteopathic Auxiliary is Organized

Mrs. M. A. Bauman, 1504 Post Ave. will serve as ways and means chairman of the newly-formed auxiliary of the Bay Harbor Osteopathic auxiliary. She will be assisted by Mrs. Chesley R. Houske, also of Torrance.

This organization, composed of the wives of a group of physicians and surgeons of the bay harbor area, is a branch of the California Osteopathic Auxiliary and is being made up of a group in the harbor area which formerly belonged to Long Beach Osteopathic society. An inaugural luncheon was held June 9 at the San Pedro Assistance League clubhouse when new officers were installed.

They are: Mrs. B. A. Pizey of San Pedro, president; Mrs. George Wall of San Pedro, vice president; Mrs. A. L. Rice of Redondo Beach, secretary and Mrs. Paul D. Yates of Hermosa Beach, treasurer.

The outgoing and incoming presidents of the Long Beach branch were present to add to the inaugural ceremonies.

Dr. George Wall of San Pedro, president of the new Bay Harbor Osteopathic society spoke complimenting the women on organizing the new unit. He also introduced Mrs. Gilman C. Johnson, state president of the California Osteopathic auxiliary, who installed the new officers.

The auditions are not competitive, one student against another, but students are judged individually on 35 points of musicianship, including such items as phrasing, rhythm, tone quality, and accuracy. Students play by memory from three to twenty modern and classical selections with allowance made for length of time studied and age of each student. Those who receive passable ratings are certificated and presented with a gold embossed pin and a year's membership in the National Fraternity of student musicians and piano hobbyist of the world.

Ralph Leopold, concert pianist, will be the adjudicator at the auditions on June 20 and 21 at 728 S. Catalina Redondo.

Attending the luncheon were: Mmes. J. M. Christiansen, J. H. Parker, Hulbert Smith, A. C. Stamps, Ladd Stamps, Leonard Stamps, and W. E. Roller, all club members. Other guests were Mmes. Earl Gates, William Cleaves and Walter Stamps.

A club board meeting will be held July 11 at the home of Mrs. Pauline Tourtelot, 2300 W. 231st St.

The 259th Place School playground will be open during summer vacation from 12:30 to 5:30 p.m. each day. Miss Frances Specht and Mrs. Henrietta Tenney will be in charge. Many activities are scheduled including crafts, games, movies, square dancing and swim trips. Children are urged to take advantage of the summer program.

Upon her return to school, she was informed that the Chi Omega Sorority, of which she is president, won first place in the "Spring Sing" an outstanding event held at the college. She likewise received notice of her appointment to the California Club, an honorary group composed of twenty students of each campus at UC. Recently, Miss Wolf has been elected president of the Pi Sigma Alpha, political honorary society.

Witnessing legislative procedures was the experience of Miss Donna Pat Wolf, political science major at the University of California, Santa Barbara, who spent three days as a representative of the University at Sacramento.

She attended the Chamber of the Assembly and lunched at the Hotel Senator as guest of Mr. Kennedy where she met Harold J. Powers, Lieutenant Governor, and many other dignitaries.

One day was spent observing the senators as the guest of Dick Richards, Senator from Los Angeles. Miss Wolf along with other school representatives, had her name read in both the assembly and the senate, receiving the privileges of the floor. She also met the Secretary of State, assistant Secretary of State and visited the Governor's office as well as attending the ways and means committee.

The third day was spent visiting other offices of the capitol and viewing documents. This included a call at the speaker's office to meet the majority floor leaders.

WCTU will meet tomorrow at the Nazarene church on Carson from 11 until 1:30 p.m. Morning speaker will Mrs. Audrey Kirks whose topic will be "Why I Belong to the WCTU". After a sack lunch, election of officers will be held. Mrs. Donna Giles, state director of Youth Temperance Council will be the afternoon speaker. Mrs. Vera Colcalsure will conduct the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Vona Steet.
